Jeremiah 31:7-14, Psalm 147:12-20, Ephesians 1:3-14, John 1:(1-9), 10-18

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, 'This was he of whom I said, "He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me."' ) From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

HANGOVERS

By Bill Pugh

There will be some who wake up on New Year's Morning with a hangover. Feeling terrible, a result of intemperate partying. Many of us have things we regret about our lives.

A new year gives a chance to begin again. It's so easy to say that, so hard to do. We start off well with mental or written list of resolutions. We need help to make our resolutions happen. Sometimes our resolutions are rash.

Peter told Jesus he would always be true to him. But just when Jesus needed him most, he denied him three times, as Jesus had predicted. And Peter wept bitterly because of his rash promise. The Bible helps us focus our minds and hearts on the straight way forward.

In writing to the Philippians, Paul sets the standard for a new year, in fact a new life. Forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what and for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus, Let those of us who are mature, be of the same mind. (Philippians 3:13-5).

Reflection:

This New Year's Day we have a new page, having acknowledged any hangovers from 2019 and pronounced forgiven, to fill it with good deeds of loving kindness in the Master's service. { "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness" }

*The Book of Proverbs shows the way ahead.
Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
and do not rely on your own insight.
In all your ways acknowledge him,
And he will make straight your paths. [Proverbs 3:5-6]*

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

World Council of Churches

We pray for:

- an end to the violence racking these battlefields of global powers
- political leaders emerging in these countries who will pursue peace, the common good, and human rights of all groups
- the international community to pursue policies that will result in acceptable, just peace for all involved
- greater openness to welcoming those displaced or fleeing from these lands, desperately seeking safety and wellbeing.
